James Hall Joins Rippey Law Office

Starting last Friday, June 1, James M. Hall, Torrance City Attorney, became associated in the practice of law with C. T. Rippey, local prominent attorney and himself a former city attorney.

Hall, who lives at 5405 Shar-yenne Lane in Seaside Ranchos, is presently associated with the Los Angeles law firm of Dolley, Knight, Woods, and Hightower. Although Hall will spend full time in Torrance he will continue to be affiliated with Los Angeles firm.

Rippey who recently suffered a heart attack is recovering speedily and is due to return to his desk on a limited schedule in the very near future.

As city attorney, Hall is engaged by the city on a part time basis. When not at his desk in the city hall he will maintain hours at Rippey law office, 1331 Post avenue.

Hall was an attorney for the Union Oil Company of California from 1945 to 1948. His familiarity with petroleum legal problems qualified him to be named to head a panel discussion on "Oil and Gas" at the 1950 State Bar Convention in Los Angeles.

GI OFFERS TO PAY FOR BIKE HE HAD STOLEN

An Air Force soldier, his conscience apparently bothering him about a bicycle he stole several months ago, came forward this week with an offer to pay the owner for his stolen two-wheeler.

Through the mail last Wednesday there came a letter addressed to Police Chief John Stroh and containing the license plate of the missing bicycle.

"Since I stole this bike I have become a Seventh Day Adventist and therefore consider it proper to send this person a reasonable amount of cash in payment for the vehicle," the soldier wrote.

He gave his name and address at a San Bernardino Air Force base.

The chief wrote back advising the soldier the bicycle had belonged to George Marshall Sutton of 832 Calle de Arboles.
